

Hugh McFadden

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Hugh McFadden, who joined the company in June 2016, will have oversight of Loan Operations, Retail Operations, Information Technology, and all Credit, Compliance, and Risk Management functions. Hugh served as a Consultant for Promontory Financial Group on regulatory compliance issues. Past roles include Chief Operating Officer and Chief Risk Officer of Modern Bank, N.A., where he played a leading role in regulatory remediation efforts, the development of a compliance risk management program, and the introduction of an enterprise risk management system. Hugh also served in various capacities within The Citigroup Private Bank, including as Chief Operating Officer for both the Americas and Europe divisions. Prior to that, he held various executive roles with Bankers Trust Company. He began his career with the U.S. Treasury Department and the Export Import Bank of the U.S.