

Bill Cassidy

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, INSTITUTIONAL BANKING

Armed with a career spent inside some of the most notable asset management organizations in the country, Bill is uniquely positioned to serve the strategic needs of our Institutional Banking clients. Prior to joining The Bancorp, Bill worked with SEI Investments in several leadership roles in the U.S. and Asia. In those roles he led and managed teams responsible for current client management and prospective client development in most areas of SEI's business areas, including Investment Processing, Global Fund Services, Transaction Services, and Investment Distribution programs. Bill's career with SEI also included a focus on large U.S. bank clients, and he headed up SEI's San Francisco operation. Outside of his career at SEI, Bill worked extensively with both the "buy-side" and "sell-side" in automating and improving trading practices through the use of technology. Bill has also served in technical sales and sales management roles at Bank of America, Bridge Information Systems/Bridge Trading Company, and UNX, Inc.
